

SP3 – Student Planning Pointers for Parents

Parent 1: I filled out the federal aid form; now what?

Parent 2: My student doesn't even know what he wants to do after high school.

Parent 3: We didn't save for college and don't know where to start.

Narrator:

Confused about how to help your student make smart plans for life after high school? ISL Education Lending's SP3, a free service for parents of 8th through 12th graders, can help.

Monthly emails guide you through a range of educational topics and help you and your student better prepare for the next steps.

Learn more and register today at sp3.org.