2022

Issued Jan. 12, 2023

Nonprofit Mission

Iowa Student Loan Liquidity Corporation® is a private, nonprofit corporation with a mission to help Iowa students and families obtain the resources necessary to succeed in postsecondary education.

This annual report fulfills the requirement outlined in Iowa Code 7C.13(2) by highlighting how our operations and activities served students and parents in fiscal year 2022.

From the Board Chair

Christine L. Hensley
Board Chair

Iowa Student Loan Liquidity Corporation® is a nonprofit organization with a mission to help Iowa students and families obtain the resources necessary to succeed in postsecondary education. This annual report provides a look at how we strive to meet our nonprofit purpose and serve Iowans with private student loans (offered under the name ISL Education Lending), scholarships, and free college and career planning tools.

We continue to help Iowa students and families by offering competitive rates and transparent terms for our supplemental education loans. Despite rising interest rates in most financial markets in academic year 2021–2022, we kept our loan rates unchanged to help students and families obtain needed funds at a reasonable cost. We also encourage students and families to compare loan and rate options before applying for a private loan. We provide this information on our website and at the start of our applications.

We also helped educate students and families so they better understand their college financing options. As part of our mission, we offer scholarship programs and provide educational tools designed to help students and families focus on the importance of career planning, appropriate borrowing levels and how to achieve educational goals. Since 2012, our scholarship and award programs have provided more than $1 million to Iowa students, families and schools and have brought significant numbers of first-time users to our free educational tools.

Another important part of achieving our mission is our support of other organizations focused on helping Iowa students. Whether through financial assistance or help through virtual events, I'm proud of the way the corporation and its staff have stepped up to help others in our community.

In summary, we are committed to investing in Iowans. Over the past 10 years, ISL has provided $47 million to Iowans in the form of interest rate reduction benefits to help reduce student loan repayment levels and we have committed more than $17 million to education planning tools and resources, scholarships and loan forgiveness programs. In the past year, we continued this focus, and I am confident that we will continue to provide the resources Iowa families need to succeed in postsecondary education going forward. On behalf of ISL's board of directors, management and staff, I am pleased to provide you with our 2022 Annual Report covering our activities during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2022.

Our Purpose and Activities

Iowa Student Loan Liquidity Corporation, doing business as ISL Education Lending, is Iowa's statutorily designated student loan provider. From ISL's office in West Des Moines, the company helps students and their families who need extra funds beyond financial aid, federal student loans and other sources by offering supplemental education loans. These loans are provided with transparent and beneficial terms relative to other private loan options offered by for-profit organizations. ISL works to provide loans with interest rates that are fair and competitive — and oftentimes much lower than the rates offered by other national lenders — to help students and families pay less in interest over the life of the loan.

Established in 1979, ISL is self-funded and self-capitalized. It is not a state agency and does not receive any state appropriations. As a nonprofit corporation, it has no shareholders and does not pay dividends.

ISL and its wholly owned subsidiary employ more than 150 associates. In its more than 40 years of service, ISL has worked to support the local economy through growth and maintenance of jobs that provide competitive salaries and benefits, including college financing or college savings benefits.

Iowa Student Loan Liquidity Corporation Board of Directors

The governor-appointed board of directors is made up of individuals representing the general public, educational institutions and financial institutions. The directors provide extensive levels of oversight and checks and balances to ensure ISL adheres to its mission and meets its obligations.

Updating Applicants About COVID-19 Relief

With COVID-19 continuing to impact student loan borrowers and the federal government extending relief for federal student loan borrowers, ISL continued to consistently warn potential refinance applicants, before and during the application, about the possibility of losing federal loan benefits. In addition, our staff reached out to applicants who did include federally held federal loans in their refinance applications to emphasize benefits that could be lost and offer the applicants another chance to exclude those loans from their application.

Assisting Student Loan Borrowers

Borrowers continue to face challenges repaying their student loans, including lingering effects of the COVID-19 pandemic and a changing economy. ISL and its servicing staff at Aspire Servicing Center understand this. When borrowers call for assistance, they reach real people who are ready to help determine which options and resources are best for a specific situation.

127,970 Borrowers and 335,614 Loans

Comments from Borrowers

Vance helped a borrower and her husband, who also has an account with Aspire Servicing Center, access necessary documents. The borrower said Vance was the most pleasant person she has ever talked to about any of her loans and went above and beyond to help her and her husband.

A borrower said he was extremely impressed with Rebekah, a customer service representative, who he said was clear, concise, patient, helpful and very professional.

Another borrower found his interaction with customer service representative Tom enjoyable. Tom helped the borrower access his online account without rushing him and made him feel like Tom was truly there to help him.

Support for Borrowers Affected by COVID-19

Support that has been in place since the beginning of the pandemic continued, with frequent communications to those who may need the assistance most. To help borrowers fully understand how the COVID-19 assistance is applied to their account, a new request form was introduced in May 2022.

Suspension of required payments upon borrower request. Borrowers were able to suspend required payments through forbearance by calling, emailing or making an online request. While interest continues to accrue during this assistance period, that interest generally does not capitalize.

Contact to borrowers with past-due payments continued to apprise borrowers of their options and encourage them to request assistance that would prevent additional negative credit reporting and loan default.

A Q and A section to address most commonly asked questions about student loan repayment for borrowers affected by COVID-19.

Prominent, regularly updated and easily accessed information on our websites regarding other assistance options, such as alternate repayment plans.

Our 2022 Public Policy Priorities

We are an information resource for state and federal officials who want to understand how policy changes they are considering might impact, positively or negatively, the thousands of Iowa students and families we assist as they plan for and fund their postsecondary education.

From time to time, we also raise awareness among public officials about challenges faced by the students and families we serve that can be addressed through bipartisan updates to public policies. These efforts typically focus on support for:

- ▶ Strong financial literacy education.
- ▶ Consumer transparency related to postsecondary education costs and financing options.
- ▶ Adequate need-based student financial aid.
- ▶ Loan repayment assistance.

These efforts have contributed in past years to, among other successes, removing tax penalties for those receiving loan forgiveness in cases of death or disability of the borrower, exempting taxes on employer-provided student loan repayment benefits and publication of statewide data providing comparative information on available student loan rates.

In the coming year, we will continue to advocate for public policies that provide better student understanding of postsecondary options and career opportunities, greater consumer understanding of college costs and financing options, assistance for those needing help to pay for college expenses, and reasonable options to assist borrowers repaying their education loans.

And we will continue to provide our public officials with information they seek in order to arrive at the best possible outcomes of their efforts for Iowa students and families.

Serving with Success

It was easy to comprehend. It taught how to manage my money when I have to pay for college and how to budget monthly expenses to have a comfortable living. This will help me in the future.

— Jake, Senior Scholarship Registrant, Trustpilot Review

Contributions like yours make an impact to REACH and our students and given the additional stress COVID-19 has placed on us, your support is more critical now than ever in helping our students learn academic skill building, career preparation, independent living, and self-advocacy.

— Dawn Pauba, Advancement Program Coordinator, The University of Iowa Center for Advancement

I had a great experience signing up for this. The process was very easy and it is great they are giving people the opportunity to win money to help with college!

— Gary, Save Now, Save Later Registrant, Trustpilot Review

Great company to work with!

Money, loans, and finances are not something that most people enjoy talking about and can be a very difficult topic to discuss, especially with strangers. Everyone I have talked with and worked with at ISL have been extremely helpful and understanding. They have been able to keep me calm on the phone and have not been condescending, especially when I did not understand something with my loan. I really appreciate working with this organization.

— Lindsey, Trustpilot Review

10/10, I certainly recommend

The loan officer took the time to evaluate my financial situation and my outstanding debt to get me approved without a cosigner. I will be forever grateful for the lower interest rate and a monthly payment $245 less than what I was paying before. Thank you!

— Tyler, Trustpilot Review

There's lots of financial planning websites and information sources targeted towards parents and saving for their child's educational future, but very few of those same sources address the topics that students should be thinking about and considering. The regular emails with class-appropriate content encourage parents to have those conversations.
